By John Kiernan, Credit Card Editor • Aug 4, 2020. The most exclusive credit card is the American Express Centurion Card, also known as the Amex Black Card. It is reportedly reserved for people who spend at least $100,000 per year, and an application is needed to apply. The so-called Amex black card is far too exclusive for most people, as a result, but there are plenty of other prestigious and exclusive credit cards that are attainable if you have excellent credit and make a lot of money.

If you have an account reported as in collections, your credit score may drop by a substantial amount. The degree to which a collection hurts your credit score is generally correlated with how high your credit score is when the collection agency reports the debt. The higher your score, the more points you can lose.
