William Sutcliffe (Author of Are You Experienced?)

Here, as elsewhere, Sutcliffe goes for the quick cheap laugh, without trying harder. Surely Indian classical literature would, for example, offer a simple sentiment as that expressed by Aeschylus -- but Sutcliffe does not seek one out. Are you Experienced ? is a backpacker novel, yet another version of a traveller's travails in India. There are some decent laughs along the way -- a fair number of genuinely amusing scenes, and two or three striking sentences -- but Sutcliffe goes about his ...
