Before The Fall Arrival Embassy

This is a short story that takes place just before All Fall Down, the first Embassy Row novel. It's short and sweet and does a great job setting the stage for the novel. It's not necessary to read this before you read the novel, but if you plan on reading both, I'd read it first as it just segues in perfectly.

Before the Fall: Arrival (Embassy Row, #0.5) by Ally Carter

This is a super short introduction to the series Embassy Row. It literally lets you know what happened at the airport before Grace arrived at the embassy. It's a quick read, but not really important. You can skip it and still understand everything in "All Fall Down".

Before the Fall Quotes by Ally Carter - Goodreads

This exciting new series focuses on Grace, who can best be described as a daredevil, an Army brat, and a rebel. She is also the only granddaughter of perhaps the most powerful ambassador in the world, and Grace has spent every summer of her childhood running across the roofs of Embassy Row.
