Contemplative Prayer Guide

"Contemplative Prayer" is Thomas Merton's guide to its subject. Laced with numerous quotations from saints and others who have addressed the topic it is thought provoking and profound. Although clearly written for monks, it is of benefit to the laity and others outside the monastery. I listened to the audio CD version.

Contemplative Prayer by Thomas Merton, Paperback | Barnes ...

In the "prayer of the heart" we seek first of all the deepest ground of our identity in God. We do not reason about dogmas of faith, or the "mysteries". We seek rather to gain a direct grasp, a personal experience of the deepest truths of life and faith, finding ourselves in God's truth. Inner certainty depends on purification.

1-25 of 25 “The only trouble is that in the spiritual life there are no tricks and no shortcuts. Those who imagine that they can discover spiritual gimmicks and put them to work for themselves usually ignore God's will and his grace.” — Thomas Merton, Contemplative Prayer

Contemplative Prayer Quotes by Thomas Merton

"What Martin Luther King was to the civil rights movement and what Henry Ford was to the automobile, Thomas Merton is to contemplative prayer. Although this prayer movement existed centuries before he came along, Merton took it out of its monastic setting and made it available to and popular with the masses.
