Flush Virginia Woolf

Flush: A Biography, an imaginative biography of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's cocker spaniel, is a cross-genre blend of fiction and nonfiction by Virginia Woolf published in 1933. Written after the completion of her emotionally draining The Waves, the work returned Woolf to the imaginative consideration of English history that she had begun in Orlando: A Biography, and to which she would return in Between the Acts.

Flush: A Biography - Wikipedia

Woolf has chosen just the right narrative method for this pseudo-biography of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's red spaniel Flush. She uses third person technique--that is the "biographer" speaking--but the biographer third person gets close in to the perspective of the dog. By this method she can include both a human perspective and the dog's perspective.
