"Good Enough" Isn't Always Good Enough - Lifehacker

The truth is many of us have been socialized to think that if we are not the very best, if we are not at the top 1 percent of whatever it is we do, then we are not good enough. To reinforce this already pervasive mental model, society has established a competitive hierarchy for just about everything.

Not Good Enough Quotes - BrainyQuote

The good enough concept is a potential cure for a perfectionist, not a handy excuse for a lazy person. If you aren't as motivated as you should be, if you are underachieving in your life, the new better mindset might be going from good to great rather than settling with the good enough.

If you are a perfectionist, learn to be satisfied with ...

Jesus gets to the heart of the matter, namely, that no one is good and no one does good except God. The young man is operating under a false premise: that a good person is able to earn his way into heaven. To make His point, Jesus says that, if the young man wants eternal life, he should keep the commandments.
