Lollardy Facts for Kids

LOLLARDS. Lollards is the name given to the English followers of John wyclif, the Oxford theologian and heretic who died in 1384. A derogatory term, it was meant to convey the attributes of a lollaerd (in Middle Dutch, a mumbler) and a loller (in Middle English, an idler). At first the sect was confined to a small group of educated priests, such as Nicholas hereford, Philip repington, and John ...
