Science is a long way off from fully understanding what exactly causes hair to be curly and what factors can turn hair from straight to curly with age. However, there is still a lot we do know. And with that information, you can make some educated guesses about why your hair has suddenly become curly.

Straight Hair Becoming Curly with Age? Here's Why ...

A straight spine is a common name for a condition in which the backbone loses a percentage of one or more of its normal curves. The spine is multiply curved back to front to allow greater weight bearing and shock negating qualities. A typical spine is curved in the shape of a letter S, when viewed from the side.
