The Bald Soprano is an absurdist play by Romanian-French playwright Eugène Ionesco, first performed in French in 1950. The play centres on the Smiths, a couple from London, and another couple, the Martins, who come over for a visit. The two families chatter in meaningless banter, tell stories and relate nonsensical truisms and poems.

Max Marckel brought in Eugène Ionesco's The Bald Soprano, an absurdist play written in 1950. The play is a meditation on language, expression, and communication, based on one of Ionesco's primers when he was learning English. The play starts and ends with the exact same lines, and as such can be seen as a sort of loop.
