The Little Black Hen by Antony Pogorelsky - Goodreads

Blackey is actually an ambassador from an underground magical kingdom of little people whose king richly rewards the child with a wish. Unwisely, the boy asks to know all the answers at school without having to study, thus beginning a downward spiral of events in which he becomes arrogant and betrays the little people's secret.

"Black Chicken or Underground Inhabitants" is a book by Anatolii Pogorelskii. This book is probably one of the most sad and touching tales for children in Russian literature, and even though it was written a long time ago in 1829, magical and mysterious plot about a little boy Alex and his favorite black chicken until today conquers hearts of little kids and their parents.
