The Ten Commandments How Our

These Ten Commandments, which start with the commands to love God, come to an end here, not simply about what we do or don't do to each other, but indeed, about how we see each other. It's as if the Word that God speaks to us — his Word, his most personal Word — is meant to sink into the deepest parts of us, to root out what is selfish and fearful and cruel, and create within us, a wellspring of generosity.
