Wood Elves still have access to their old free wood. Wood Elves are an army almost completely made up of trees, bowmen, or fast cavalry. They rely on speed, shooting and picking their fights. Wood elves still lack war machines but have in exchange a megaton of poisoned weaponry. The name of their game is speed and maneuverability.

So this game was a pretty aside in the wood elves favor with some extreme magic phases two first turns. Then the glade ride entered and swept the rest. ... It seems to me that dropping all the tree units strength by 1 when going from 7th to 8th edition really did them a disservice. Since getting back into gaming I've really wanted to field an ...

The Wood Elves, known as the Asrai in some tales, or as the Fay Folk of Athel Loren, are a reclusive, secretive and highly isolationist race of Elves that have long ago voluntarily split off from the rest of their kin, preferring instead to live out their lives in Nature's embrace beneath the enchanted forested canopy of Athel Loren. From here, they have learnt to dwell in concord with the ...

Wood elves, also known as copper elves, or Or-tel-quessir were the most populous of the elven races. Wood elves saw themselves as guardians of the Tel-quessir forest homes that were largely abandoned after the Crown Wars and before the Retreat, but unlike most elves they did not view themselves as a people apart from the rest of Faerûn. Wood elves were easily identifiable by their coppery ...

You have a beautiful wood elves army. 2) I like your list. It seems balanced as far as I can see. 3) I 've never tried the sisters as bunker but i think they can work fine. We can discuss about their number maybe. Ok they have a great WS but under enemy fire you can for sure risk something. 4) eternal guard is a cool unit.

Drycha, the Briarmaven of Woe, is a powerful spirit of Athel Loren. Long ago, Drycha held court amongst the roots of Addaivoch, the once-glorious creature known in recent times as the Tree of Woe. Most believe that Drycha lost her mind when Morghur's death tainted that ground forever, but in truth, she was capricious and malevolent for many long years before that tragedy. Drycha remembers ...

The Eternal Guard are the guardians of the most sacred places within the domains of Athel Loren during the long winter months, where the forest is at its lowest ebb, made dormant and vulnerable by the cycle of the seasons. The Treemen slumber, and even the normally vigorous Dryads are sluggish and slow. Only skill on the field of battle can earn an honoured place within the ranks of the ...

Araloth, called "Araloth the Bold", or "Araloth of the Hooked Blade" is the current Glade Lord of Talsyn, and the personal champion of Queen Ariel herself. The Elf that would be known as Araloth was not always a hero. In his youth, he was a craven lordling who had not the mettle to hunt any prey that could hunt him in return. Whilst others went to battle in his stead, Araloth caroused and ...

Treemen are massive humanoid creatures that resemble upright walking trees. They are considered a legend by most Old Worlders and the few that believe in their existence think them long dead. They are not gone, but those that remain dwell exclusively within the forest of Athel Loren. Indeed, there are those who believe the treemen are Athel Loren. They seldom venture beyond the forest for any ...
